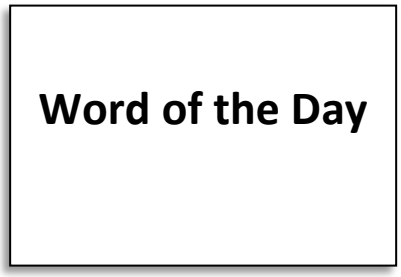
Grammarian Assignment Sheet

Grammarian: Prior to class, the grammarian picks a word of the day for people to try to use in their presentations. The grammarian should prepare by writing out 3 things: 1. the word of the day written in large letters on a paper (which will be placed so that speakers can see it during class), 2. the definition (to read aloud during class) and 3. an original sample sentence or two, also to be read in class.

Word of the day:

Definition

1-2 original sample sentences using the word of the day



Bring the Word of the Day written in large letters on an 8.5X11" sheet of paper

Name	Word of the Day used	Ah, Er, Um, You Know	Colorful uses of the English language

During class, tally each student's use of the word of the day and also tally "filler" words